VIDEO DESCRIPTION

Christianity is built on the claim that Jesus Christ rose from the grave on the third day after His crucifixion. The Apostle Paul not only thought that the resurrection was an important thing to believe, but he also insisted that if it never happened, the faith of Christians was empty and Christians were pathetic.

Today, 2,000 years later, the historical evidence for the resurrection of Jesus is overwhelming.

Before the Video: Make a Prediction

Before the Video: Make a Prediction

- What evidence might exist that Jesus rose from the dead?

During the Video:

- How did Jesus die, according to historical sources?
- What happened to Jesus' tomb three days after His death?
- What happened to Jesus' disciples after His death?

After the Video:

- Why is the "swoon theory" (that Jesus didn't really die, but just passed out) not convincing?
- Why is the transformation of the disciples such powerful evidence?
- What is the simplest explanation for all this evidence?
